

Clown: Wow...! the water tastes so good ...!

(The clown and Manoharan walk a long distance. It is evening.)

Clown: The night is falling... and I am hungry too.

Manoharan: Look ahead... the village is close by. A chathiram will be there. We can eat and sleep.

Clown: Thank you, thank you, hear us say, we'll eat our food, then rest today. Thank you, thank you, hear us sing, we thank you all for everything.

Conduct the puppet show by following instructions given in the teachers handbook.
