A Tree Party

One sunny morning, Sam went to the garden. He saw a coconut tree wearing a funny hat. "Who put that hat on you?" he asked with a smile. Just then, a strong wind blew. Whoosh! The hat flew off the coconut tree and landed on a mango tree. "Oh, now you are wearing the hat!" Sam laughed. The wind blew again. The hat flew from the mango tree to the nearby plantain tree. The long leaves swayed and danced in the gentle breeze. Sam clapped his hands and said, "Wow! The trees are having a fun party!"
