Unit 1

A Box That Tells a Story

Grandpa's Pen...!

Discuss and Learn

Painting work was going on at Mugilan's house. Mugilan's grandfather and father were bringing down old items from the loft (paran) of the house. Just then, father gets ready to bring down a wooden box.

Thatha: Give it carefully!

Appa: Alright, Appa. After all, this is your treasure box! I know it's importance.

Mugilan: A treasure box? Does that mean the box is filled with gold jewellery?

Thatha: No Mugila, these are all things that I collected and used in the past. Let me show you.
