

“Mugila...! Since you kept thinking of me, I have come to speak with you. I am "Ezhuthani" — the pen from old times. A magic pen! Do you know why?

To write, I do not need paper or ink. Do you know what I need? Just a palm leaf. People used me to write on palm leaves, and that was called an "Olaisuvadi".

The veins of the leaf are straight, but my tip is sharp. Sometimes, the leaf could tear, and even the writer’s hand could get hurt. So, they always used me carefully.
