Food Groups

Observe and Discuss

Grandma, we eat different parts of the plant. Why do we need to eat so many different kinds of food?

We eat a variety of food items because they belong to various food groups.

Each food has a special job. Some give us energy, some help us grow, and some protect us from diseases. Eat a variety of food items every day to keep healthy and strong!