In olden times, people went to the market and bought things. How do we buy things nowadays?

Let us Write

1. Complete the story by using the clues.

(achani, paddy sack, grass bundle, oil lamp, kattusoru)

One day, in a bullock cart...

2. On the way to the market, imagine a wheel of the bullock cart broke. What would you do?

Let us Act

- One person is a reporter.
- The other person is a bullock cart driver or a bus driver.

Questions to be asked by a reporter:

a. What is your vehicle used for?

b. How does it help people?

Encourage children and have them frame additional questions.
