6. Tabulate.

Ladybug

Centipede

Housefly

Firefly

Millipede

Mosquito

S.No.	Insects	Number of wings	Number of legs
1	Centipede	No	Many
2	Lady bug
3	Housefly
4	Firefly
5	Millipede
6	Mosquito

Similar Yet Different! - Moths and Butterflies

Moths

Moths are commonly dull brown or grey in colour.

Most often active at night.

When resting, they spread their wings flat.

Butterflies

Butterflies are bright and colourful.

Most often active during the day.

When resting, they hold their wings upright over the body.