16.01.1962

Tuesday

Today we set out to Thatha's house in Poompuhar. It is at a distance of eighty miles. This is the first time I am travelling such a long distance in a bullock cart. Appa drove the cart.

The cart was moving with a "Jal Jal Jal Jal..." sound. I felt like driving the cart. Appa handed me the ropes and went to sit at the back. I took the ropes in my hand and flicked them. The bulls shook their heads. The bells around their necks danced..."Jal Jal Jal Jal", A cart coming from the opposite direction moved aside.